24 tíma viðvera alla daga. Veitingasala sé á staðnum.

Skýringar á texta:

Tjaldsvæði: Afmarkað svæði ætlað fjölda tjalda.

Tjaldstaði: Staður innan afmarkaðs tjaldsvæðis ætlað stöku tjaldi (fellihiði, húsbíl...)

Star Grading of Camping Areas

Camping areas in Iceland are classified according to a standard compiled by the Icelandic Tourist Board. The use of the standard is optional. Where the standard is used, star grading categories are presented in a conspicuous location at the site and visitors are then expected to make sure that the site corresponds to its classification as expressed by the number of stars granted to the site. In the event that visitors feel the site in question does not fulfil the requirements of its class, they are kindly requested to inform the Icelandic Tourist Board, tel.: 464-9990 or through the e-mail address: upplýsingar@icetourist.is

1 star: ★

The camping area shall be clearly marked and fenced off from livestock access. The campsites shall be on level ground and well cared for. All aspects of the camping area shall be clearly marked, including driving routes. First Aid equipment shall be available from the site supervisor. There shall be an information board showing site rules for visitors and the supervisor's phone number. There shall be daily supervision in the camping area. The number of lavatories and sinks shall be in accordance to legislation and the facilities inspected by a health inspector. WC open 24 hours. Waste shall be removed regularly. All structures in the area shall be in a good state of maintenance. All facilities in the area shall be clearly marked. Information regarding emergency phone numbers shall be at least in Icelandic and English. The camping area shall contain facilities for the disposal of sewage water and toilet effluent from camping vehicles or information on the nearest disposal sight.

2stars: ★★

The following are in addition to category one: Minimum staff attendance shall be two hours during the day. An information board in public view showing staff attendance hours. Service area shall be illuminated. In an emergency an access to a phone in near by vicinity. Credit cards accepted. Tables and benches in the camping area.

3 stars: ★★★

In addition to the above, the following conditions shall be fulfilled: The staff shall be in a regular attendance during the hours of high workload (e.g.: 08:00-10:00 and 17:00-21:00) and there shall be a night watch during weekends. The reception shall be easily accessible with information relating to the camping area as well as other camping areas. Tables and chairs under roof cover. Mailbox in the camping area. Access to a washing machine and drying facilities. Facilities for waste classification (at least according to minimal requirements regarding the disposal of environmentally harmful waste materials). Hot and cold water at the camping area. All information regarding the camping area and booking facilities available outside opening hours. Playground for children.

4 stars: ★★★★

In addition to the above: The staff shall be in a regular attendance at the camping area daily from 07:00-23:00. Visitors shall have access to an internet connection. There shall be special parking lots for camping vehicles and tent campers with electrical access points.

5 stars: ★★★★★

In addition to the above there shall be: 24 hour daily attendance. On-site catering service.

Textual explanations: Camping area = Restricted area intended for a number of tents. Campsite = Location within restricted camping area intended for an individual tent (tent camper, camping vehicle).
